Brief introduction of your research experience:

Since August 2006, I have served as a teacher of mechanics at Qindao University, Qingdao University of Technology. I mainly teach mechanics courses of mechanics and civil engineering subject, including Theoretical Mechanics, Mechanics of Materials, Structural Mechanics, Fluid Mechanics and Elastic Mechanics. In the course of teaching, on the one hand, I in-depth study of the basis of mechanics. On the other hand, some researches have been done on some new materials such as graphene, Au nanoparticles and composite gel glass. I have published 18 papers and applied for 5 patents.
